SIGNATURE TALK

LEVEL UP: CONNECTION, PURPOSE, AND TRUE POWER

ABOUT THE TALK

Every young person carries more strength, clarity, and purpose than the world has given them credit for. This work is about helping them find it, name it, and live it.

Alain began his career as the youngest officer on the Dutch police force at sixteen, working with at risk youth from day one. Since then he has worked with young people across three continents, in schools, detention programs, and communities in the US, Costa Rica, and Colombia. He makes complex themes like identity, purpose, and emotional intelligence tangible, joyful, and immediately useful for young people aged 6 to 17.

Alain's talks and workshops meet young people exactly where they are, and help them level up from the inside out.
